REGALITY FOOD FAIR

Wednesday 24 June, 11am to 4pm

Food and Famine – Friendship and Folly

Regality Food Fair

Promoting local food and drink

Discover the scope and quality of locally produced and sourced Food and Drink through exhibits, displays, tastings, demonstrations and information.

Highland Hospitality

Famed through the centuries.

Enjoy “A Highland Welcome” and the friendly hospitality and fine fare of local hotels, restaurants and coffee shops as well as Grantown’s “Reminiscence Tearoom”. There will be a special welcome for international visitors.

Rebel and Redcoat

Learn about the food and lifestyle of the Jacobite Period with re-enactment Group, Alba Adventure Company.

Feast and Famine

Under the watchful eye of the ‘Hen Wife’, lunch at the laird’s table 250 years ago. Sample a clansman’s meal and reflect on massive starvation in times of 18th Century famines.

Crofting Connections & Traditional Crafts

Crofting through the years.

Learn about traditional food produced on crofts in the past and present. See displays and demonstrations of crofting skills and even try your hand at milling grain. Learn about some of the crafts associated with food production and storage.

Crimes of Food and Drink

Visit a remarkable little exhibition telling for example, about smuggling, punishment for the theft of cheese and the Grantown Meal Riots.

Nature’s Larder

A chance to find out more about food from field and forest both for ourselves and for our wild animals and birds.

Walks and Exhibitions

Including Bogtastic! exploring the Anagach bogs. We’ll look for the weird plants and the amazing insects. Perhaps this is the day to visit the Grantown Shops exhibition, one of the other exhibitions and displays or follow Grantown’s Town Trail or Historical Walk.

Gala Dinner

A special dinner with local specialities, toasts and fiddle music composed for the Festival.

Mid-week Concert

A stunning event with local musicians.

Grantown 250 – The Strathspey Seven Festivals

HERITAGE – ENVIRONMENT – TRADE – TOURISM – MUSIC – FOOD – SPORT

To mark the 250th anniversary of the foundation of Grantown, illustrating the story of the development of the modern Highlands and Strathspey today, Grantown will host a unique and high profile festival from 21st to 28th June 2015.

Eight event packed days

Festivals galore, picnics, historical re-enactments; from sporting challenges to exhibitions; wildlife walks, street entertainers; drama, music and dance; flowers, art and literature; concerts, costumes, crafts, competitions, challenges, cycling and a conference and because you can’t have a birthday celebration without a birthday cake there will be the Great Grantown Cake Bake.
